HI YAA !!

YA RRR GG HH! H!

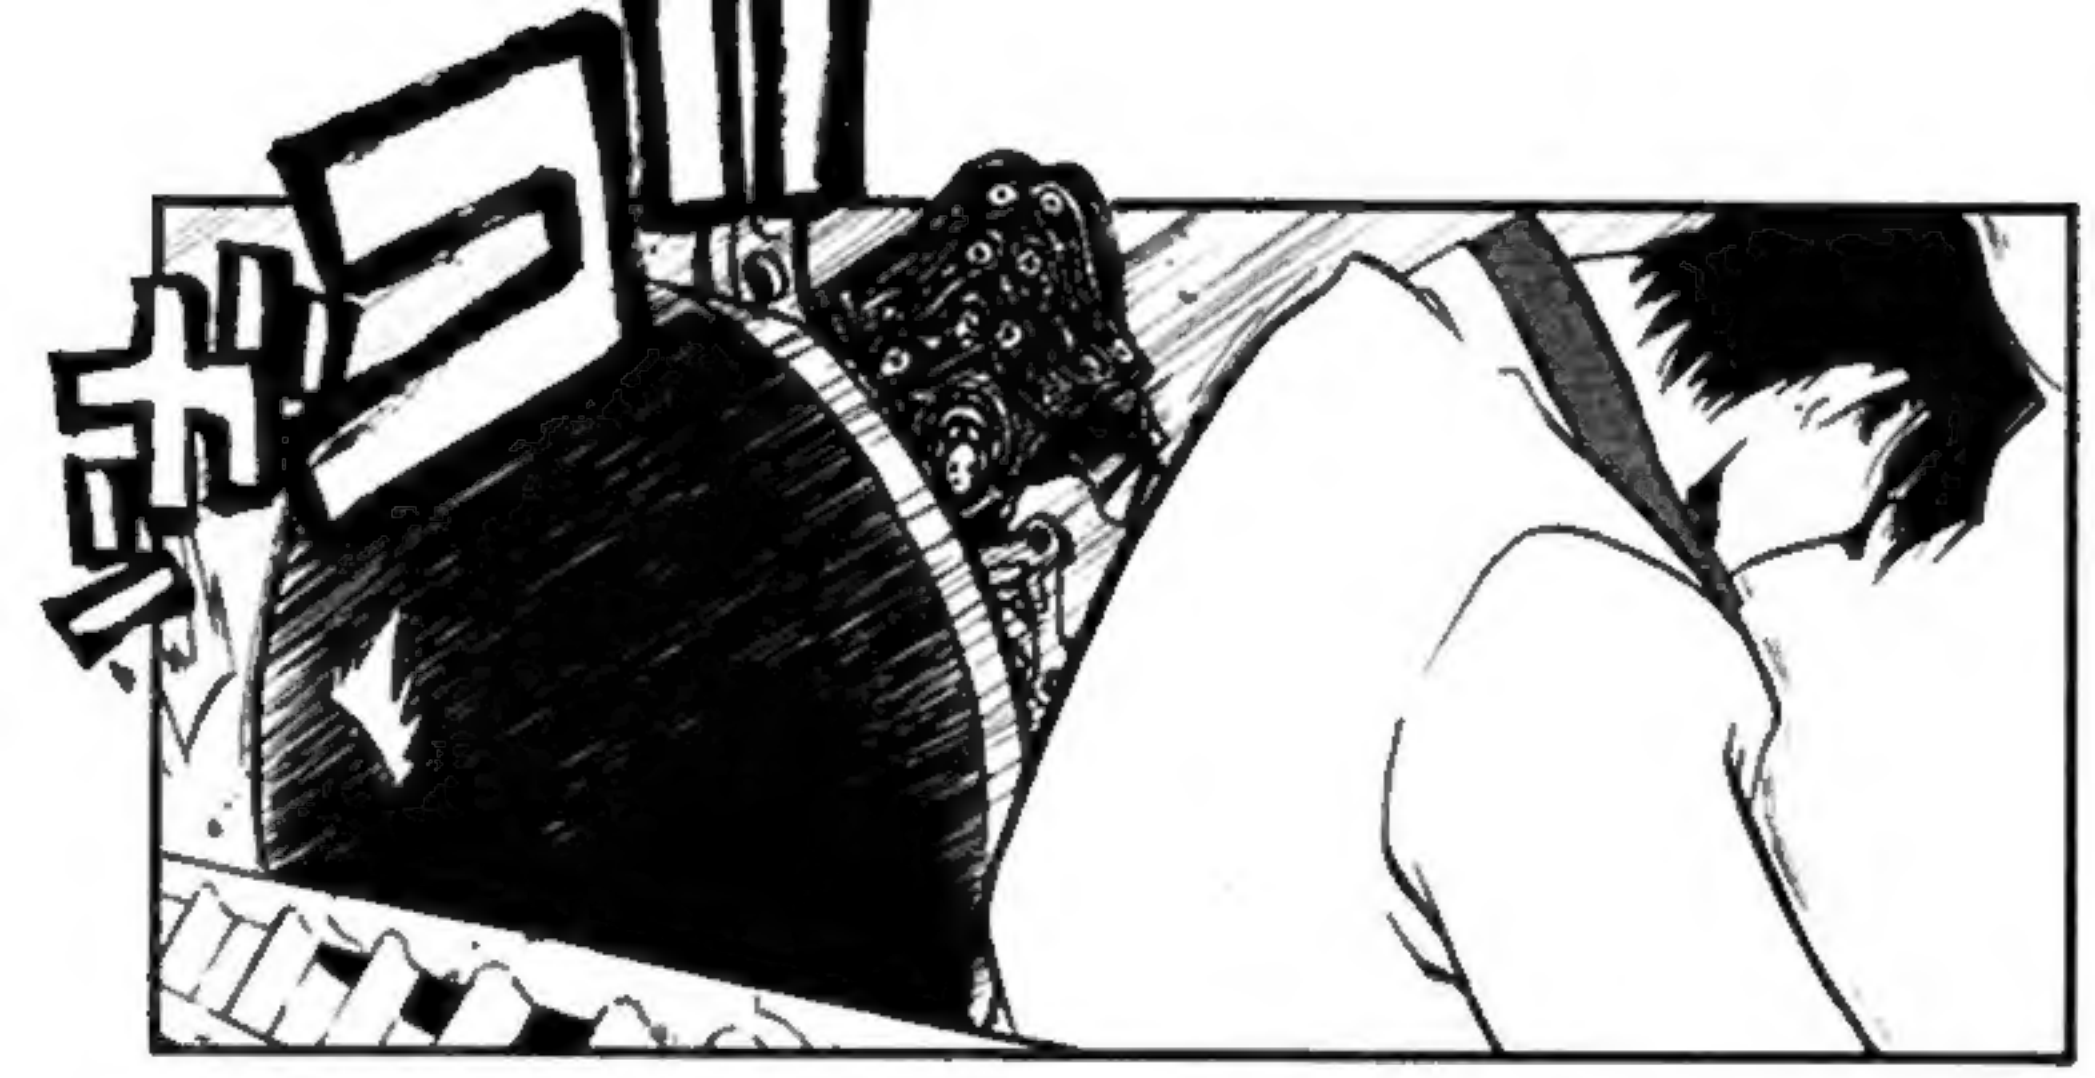
Ahhh
....

Huh?

The stealth of inhuman speed...
How can I block an attack too swift to detect?!

I guess you wanted me to watch out for something, but...
you know how I hate third-party information.

From here on out...
this gig is MEMBERS ONLY.



Heh ...
what a strange feeling.
Only when "sound" disappears...
The Gudelia Vibrations, the acceleration, the impact...

If it collides with a wave of the opposite phase, it will be utterly neutralized.

a "wave."

No matter how loud a noise is, it's still a vibration of air --

It's a simple theory.

This is the same.

the center never moves.

In any good tug-of-war match,

To filter straight through all that interference...

Echoes, resonance... this place is full of noise!!

It can't be THAT simple, with all the different sounds in this building!!

Don't be so cocky...

If that ain't magic, then what the hell is?!

The target would have to be in complete and total silence!

...then adjusting for the Doppler effect to play simultaneously ...

Midvalley the Hornfreak!!

Master of Airwaves...
